“ The Chilli Rooms is one of the most enjoyable offerings in art today. Art collectors are the clear winners.” Katie Cripps Avalon, Sydney

“ This is the most serious kind of art that I know, lifts the spirits and leaves you better for having partaken of it. What's more serious than feeling better? Great art for grown-ups! When you look at the application of paint you know immediately there's a serious artist at work here.” Mark Hubbard Finance Director UXC Limited & Art Collector

“ Wayne Ashton’s new Pinski Paintings capture a simpler and more delicious time when summer blended into the rhythms of a beach, a shack and a glimpse. Pinski is a loveable pooch with a penchant for high adventure. With his Travelling Dive Troupe he journeys in his hot air balloon to coastal hideaways where they perform dives from the basket into the ocean. See the collection tonight at wayneashton.com – one of the best online galleries in Australia. ”
